

About Larkin 20: Autumn 2005

(Special Double-Number PLS 10th Anniversary Issue)

Contents

The Celtic Fever Abated An alternative view of The North Ship	Fred Sedgwick
Two Poems In Memoriam PAL 2-12-85, The Larkin Room	Vernon Scannell
Larkin and Photography A study of material from the University of Hull Archive	Rachel Foss
Catching up An ordinary reader reflects on the necessity of poetry	Maurice Rutherford
Larkin's idiolect An extract from Professor Booth's book Philip Larkin: The Poet's Plight	James Booth
Seen from High Windows The origins of a metaphor	Richard D Jackson
Offers one can refuse Social and sexual relationships in the poetry of Philip Larkin	Rory Waterman
Larkin's relationship to his readers Outlining a research project	Peter James
Setting the record straight Professor Richard Bradford interviewed	Terry Kelly
Book Review First Boredom, then Fear—The Life of Philip Larkin by Richard Bradford	Terry Kelly
Programme of Events 2005-6
A Beautiful Synthesis A review of Oliver Ford Davies reading at the 2005 AGM	David Green
Poem of the Month Commentaries from the Society website page Poem of the Month
Measured: Mr Bleaney A man of mystery	Sabrina Hicks
Two Poems	Norman Jackson

Newland Park Garden Party 17th July 2005
And Larkin's last home is marked by a blue plaque

Larkin's Records
A reconstruction of Larkin's discography

Trevor Tolley

We Remember, We Remember
Some of Larkin's colleagues (and borrowers) recall a man somewhat different from the myth

A Quick Christmas Quiz
for the well versed

James Orwin

Philip Larkin and Barbara Pym
Two Societies meet at St Hilda's College Oxford

Hazel K Bell

Philip Larkin D LITT
The oration at the Univesrity of Leicester, July 1970

Noticeboard

Larkin's Juvenilia
A child genius running to seed

Fred Holland

The Ninth Annual Larkin Birthday Walk
Here: Hull 7th August 2005

Cherry Pyke

A Poem
December's Door - in memoriam Philip Larkin

Douglas Dunn

A Merry Christmas Card
from Philip Larkin

Cover Illustrations

FRONT: Waders World BACK: Idle Moments on the River Hull by Tom Harland