

About Larkin 26: October 2008

Contents

Larkin 25	Graham Chesters
From Willow Gables to 'Aubade': Penelope Scott Stokes and Philip Larkin: Part 2	Susannah Tarbush
Larkin on the Lucky Jim Manuscript	Ross Gresham
Forthcoming Events
The Brynmor Jones Library Archives Revisited: 19 April 2008	James Booth
Thoughts on the line: 'Life is first boredom, then fear'	Sam Ellis
The Philip Larkin Society AGM: Philip to Monica: The Poet's Most Intimate Letters: Anthony Thwaite: 7 June 2008	Alison Mace
Philip Larkin, William Donaldson and the War against Cliche	Joseph Bailey
'A green thought in a green shade': The Garden Afternoon at 105 Newland Park: 26 July 2008	Jean Hartley
'Aubade': The Making of a Poem, or the Dialectics of Despair	Terry Kelly
Poem: Rebuilding the City	Audrey Dunne
'A Cake in the Rain': Montgomery, Amis and Larkin: Review of Bruce Montgomery/Edmund Crispin: A Life in Music and Letters , by David Whittle	Mark Rowe
Poem: Coming closer (Sonnets for my mother II)	Alison Mace
Poem : For Cliff and Ivy Bagshaw, 1942	Monica Cheale
The Sunday Sessions : Faber CD
All This Jazz. Review of Such Deliberate Disguises: The Art of Philip Larkin , by Richard Palmer	Terry Kelly

Notes on Contributors

Publications and Merchandise

COVER ILLUSTRATION

Philip Larkin's toad waste paper basket (Photograph © James Booth)