

About Larkin 5: April 1998

Contents

Title

Philip Larkin: an American View	Dale Salwak
Larkin's Letters to America	John White
The Least Deceived	William H. Pritchard
Mr Larkin Gets a Life	Joseph Epstein
A Reading of Larkin's 'For Sidney Bechet'	V. Penelope Pelizzon
James Ballard Sutton	Maeve Brennan

Poems

A Visit from Philip Larkin	Robert Sargent
Larkin at Night	Monica Cheale

Reviews of Society Events

'Publishing Poetry'	Wes Magee
'Creating Harmony by Investigating Discord'	Jules Smith

Future Society Events

News

'I remember, I remember'	Peter Walters
Coventry Plaque Unveiling	Don Lee
Larkin Day-School in Bristol	Richard Camp

Book Reviews

John Whitehead reviews Larkin at Work: a study of Larkin's mode of composition as seen in his workbooks by Professor A T Tolley

John Mowat reviews The Long Shadows by Alan Brownjohn

COVER ILLUSTRATION

Photograph of an untitled painting by Jim Sutton which greatly impressed Philip Larkin. Sutton believed it may have had an indirect bearing on the poem 'High Windows' © Mrs Daphne Ingram.